

Course in Personality Development and Human Values

In order to inculcate human values the college has introduced a certificate course in 'Personality Development and Human Values'. The course aims

- To develop holistic personality of the students.
- To increase scientific temper
- To inculcate values like righteous conduct, truth, love, non-violence, peace etc.
- To develop positive attitude
- To feel for the human essence of others.

Bearing in mind the above objective the certificate course Personality Development and Human Values is designed. The experts from other institutions are invited to guide the students. At the same time the faculty is involved in conducting the course. At the end of the course the examination is conducted and the successful students are awarded certificates. After the completion of course the students will become responsible and good citizen.